

Zicom to scale up reach in South India

Zicom Electronic Security Systems, a key player in organised electronic security solutions in the country, is all set to build its distribution network through strong associations spread across the region. Zicom will be focusing on category creation and expansion by developing and introducing innovative services to cater to both residential and commercial customer segments in South Indian cities.